Judge M. Noah said in his Weekly Messenger, Jan. 6, 1850:

Dr. Hackand's German Bitters—Hers is a preparation which the leading presses in the Union appear to be unanimous in recommending, and the reision is obvious. It is made after a prescription for ished by one of the most celebrated physicians of modern times—the late Dr. Wilhelm Hondand, Professor to the University of Jens, private physician to the Kong of Frensus and one of the greatest instead writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically instead of humbing and therefore a needlenn or which he was the inventor and indicase may be confidently reliefs on. He specially recommended it in Land Dryspian, Dashbuy, Vertago, Andilly of the Stomach, the Liver and the Internation. Sine Fluidashbu appears express their crustition of its stockence, and several of the editors speak of its effects from their own individual experience. Under these circumstances, we feel warranted, in not only calling the attention of our residers to the present proprietor's (Dr. C. M. Jackson's) preparation, but in recommending the article to allamented. Most and the stockence of the editor says:

The Philadelephic Saturday Genetic, the best family newspaper published in the United States. The editor says:

"It is redom that we recommend by a German Balters, we ship to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the austrance of the day, that are nowed about for a first plant and the inogettes after that done its guilty race of mischief, but of a mode to long established, universally princed and which has not the hearty approval of the faculty stell."
